

Thank you for your response to my article on the 70th Anniversary of the Destruction of Dresden

You are welcome to disagree with my opinions, and point out if any of the facts are inaccurate. However, why insinuate against my character?

No, I do not receive any money from any German sources for any of our Bank accounts. The Reformation Society most certainly has no significant donors from overseas. We are a Faith Mission and in 33 years we have never taken up an offering.

This is no new history, but there are revelations that come from documents that have been sealed for decades by official Secrets Acts, such as the GCHQ Enigma Code Breaking of Bletchley Park, which, like the sinking of the Lusitania files, was sealed for 60 years.

The betrayal of the Russian refugees in Western Europe into the hands of the Soviet NKVD in 1945 through Operation Keelhaul was sealed for 30 years and so one can carry on.

Sometimes it does take several decades before facts that were suppressed during war time are finally allowed to surface.

Yours for the fulfilment of the Great Commission
